and A. Brooke Taylor, members, decilned to-day to discuss the charges that the Democratic Executive Committee had been ignored in asking for lists from which to hame the language of elections to serve for the next year. It is expected that the board will meet during the present week, when the matter will be considered if presented. Third Member Taiks.

Secretary Edward Brockenborough, the third member of the board, when seen, admitted that it was true that the Republican chairman had been asked for a list from which to select judges, but claims that it was done only because the members of that party were not suilliciently known to the members of the board for them to act intelligently in securing the best men for the positions. He said they would have been at sea but for the list furnished by the Republicans. On the other hand, they knew the personnel of the Democratic Party and did not need the assistance. He further said: "This is the best list of judges and clerks that I ever remember having seen during my four years' service of the electoral board and the board has no apologies to make for their alguiton."

"No nominations were received from any representatives or the Anti-Saloon League," declared Mr. Brockenborough, "and neither Republican nor Anti-Saloon League," declared Mr. Brockenborough, "and neither Republican nor Anti-Saloon League," declared Mr. Brockenborough, "and neither Republican nor Anti-Saloon League, deader were allowed to consor the board's appointees before announcement was made of their appointment. There has been no procedent for the receiving of nominations from Democrats or Republicans. Two per refused to go into the primary and the fight was thrown into the general election. The board received nominations for judges and clerks from the board. This time the Republicans who mitted during my four years on the board. This time the Republicans were only asked for names because we did not know the Republicans who might be suitable. As it sainds, the Democratic organizations on the board. T
